VOTERS WHO HAVE YET TO RECEIVE THEIR BALLOTS CAN VOTE

In order not to disenfranchise voters who have yet to receive their ballots, the COMELEC Committee on Overseas Voting issued Guideline No. 2013 – 06 on 2 May 2013 which allows said voters to vote provided that:

- The voter personally appears at the Post where he is registered,
- The voter's name is listed in the Certified List of Voters, or in the list of voters who failed to vote in two successive elections, and
- His identity is properly established, i.e, identification such as passport or driver's license is required.
